Tom Kirby Selected Assistant Football Coach.

WILL START IN TO-MORROW

Blue and Gray Determined to Whip
Tenn Into Shape Able to Give Virginia Stiff Battle in Annual Game.
New Assistant at Present Coaching Central High School.

By WILLIAM PEET.
That Georgetown is making every effort to get a team into line this season able to give the University of Virginia a red-hot battle in their annual game here on November 11 is shown by the fact that Head Coach Bill Newman, of the Hilltoppers, will have an assistant, starting Wednesday.

Newman's assistant is to be Tom Kirby, an alumnus of Georgetown, who first made a reputation for himself as coach at Western High School, and who last year went down to Athens, Ga., with Branch Rowcock, turning out one of the best eleven the University of Georgia ever put in the field.

At present Mr. Kirby is coaching Central High School, which team faces Tech to-day in their first intercollegiate game of the season. School spirit at Central this year has been almost dead, and although Mr. Kirby has done his best with the material at hand, the team he places in the field this afternoon will be one of the weakest Central has turned out in recent years.

Couch Kirby is not to blame, for the reason that he has no material with which to work, and day after day only a handful of men have turned out for practice.

Newman Asked for Assistant.
At the conclusion of last season, Head Coach Newman, of Georgetown, was anxious to have the management provide for an assistant coach in case he (Newman) was hired for this season. At that time the management could not see their way clear to do so, but have come to the conclusion at last that an assistant coach is just what is needed, and that Tom Kirby is the right man for the place.

Nobody in Washington is better qualified for the position than Mr. Kirby. He has made a close study of the game for five years, and has always been able to deliver the goods, with any sort of material at his command.

A consultation was held at Georgetown yesterday afternoon between Head Coach Newman, Manager Murray, and Tom Kirby, at which time everything was arranged for Mr. Kirby to begin his duties as assistant coach to-morrow.

Mr. Kirby was seen last night and refused to discuss the matter. He admitted that a conference was held at Georgetown yesterday, but said that he was coaching Central High School, and until I see my way clear to it, will not talk of the Georgetown proposition.

Have Confidence in Kirby.
Local football fans who have followed the game closely believe that with Tom Kirby helping out at Georgetown, the Hilltoppers have secured the very best man for the place.

To show the interest that Georgetown alumni are taking in the football team this year, Arthur Devlin, third baseman of the New York Giants, a former Georgetown star, stated last night that he would be out on the field as often as he could get away from his business to give what aid he possibly could. Devlin at one time was about as good a half back as the Blue and Gray ever turned out.

St. Mark's Boys Defeated.
Company B, of the Boys' Brigade, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, journeyed over to Baltimore yesterday, and were defeated by Company K, First Maryland Regiment, U. S. B. A., by the score of 19 to 5.

Company B was outwitted and had to resort continually to trick plays, which proved effective toward the end of the second half.

Had the rain not interfered, Company B would more than likely have come home victorious. The entire Company B team played well while Smith and Stewart starred for Company K.

Frank Hinkle to Help Yale.
New Haven, Conn., Oct. 25.—Yale's coaching staff is to be increased this week by the addition of Frank Hinkle, Yale's famous former end and captain. He has left his business in Western Kansas and should arrive soon. He will remain until the end of the season.

PUNTS AND PASSES.

Hellman's play at half back for Penn on Saturday was a decided surprise.

Lubo, who used to be a tackle at Carleisle, will play with the All-Synagogue professionals.

Keep your eye on Michigan this year. Coach Yost has but little to say this year. He's learning.

The Indians were beaten by Pittsburg, 14 to 0, which will only make them want to beat on October 30.

Last year Lafayette played the Tigers a 6-0 tie. This year, under Coach Follen, the former Penn back, they won, 6 to 0.

Pop Corey is one of the few left-handed quarter backs in the game. He not only makes his forward passes from the port side, but also kicks from his left foot.

Hurry Up Yost, coach at Michigan, was far from satisfied with the 6-0 score against Marquette College at Milwaukee on Saturday, but the Wolverine leader and Keene Fitzpatrick are thankful that every man came out of the grueling struggle in good condition.

Edward Harris Coy, captain of the Yale football team, Sunday afternoon addressed one of the largest audiences that ever crowded into the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian Association of New Haven, Conn., talking for his subject "Being True." Coy is an earnest and forceful speaker. Most of his listeners were high school and college boys of the city, and the football player's remarks were made in an impressive manner.

CROSS MEETS STONE.

Interesting Mill Before Baltimore
Club on Thursday.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 25.—Joe Thomas, the California middle-weight, who fought Stanley Ketchell three hard battles for the middle-weight title, will come here with Leach Cross to be one of his main seconds in the clever New Yorker's battle with Harry Stone before the Eureka Athletic Club at the Germania Maschinen-Hall Thursday night. For almost two weeks Thomas and Johnny Loftus, who is considered one of the best trainers in America, have been preparing Cross at Stratford, Conn., where Thomas trained for all his important mills in the East.

Manager Herford is trying hard to get some boy to meet Young Daly in the semi-windup. Daly has beaten all the local boys with such ease that efforts are now being made to have Yankee Schwartz come here and try conclusions with the local terror.

This afternoon the third game of the High School series will be played between Central and Tech. It is thought by many that this contest will be the one to decide the championship, and the hardest fought battle of the series is expected. Tech is naturally the favorite, but the O streeters are sure to have something up their sleeves in the shape of tricks, and if a few good forward passes are dealt out by the Dark Blue and White the game will prove interesting and close.

Observers of Central at practice yesterday afternoon were agreeably surprised to see a squad of twenty-five men in football uniform.

The authorities of the school held a mass meeting yesterday, and speeches were made by those interested in athletics, with a view to bringing a larger squad out for practice. Judging from the results of the meeting, a success, for hereafter the coach had complained that all the regulars did not report, to say nothing of a scrub team, without which no football eleven can hope to make any creditable showing. Yesterday two full teams were on hand in uniform.

Followers of the Central team will go to the American League Park this afternoon to watch the usual contest, but they are prepared for defeat, if it comes, and in case they are beaten will use the new men to develop a team which they are sure will land second place.

Black noncommittal about to-day's game, and it is evident that the Techs consider Central their most dangerous rival for first place. The Maroon and Gray rely on their greater weight and superior knowledge of the game, however, and the whole school will be on hand to-day expecting the victory to be theirs by a large margin.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

The George Washington team has drawn upon the Washington high schools for material heavily this year. Five of the regular players are local high school graduates, and one substitute, Robinette, was a student at Eastern. Of the five 'varsity men, Johnson and Farmer have both attended Eastern, and the latter was captain of the scholastic eleven in his senior year. Bills and Hart were the strongest Tech team of four years ago, and have proved towers of strength for the university eleven. But probably George Washington's greatest find of the season is Bryan Morse, the brainy little quarter. This man was developed by the Western High School eleven years ago, and has been playing phenomenal football for the college team this season.

Nothing has been heard of even a beginning of basketball at either Western or Eastern this year, and it will serve as a disappointment to many who have looked for a continuation of the sport in these schools. It is true at both institutions that the best players have graduated, but surely there are enough interested to make creditable quints. Eastern lost the services of Martin, who was probably the school's greatest all-around athlete, and it misses him in all branches of sport, but with proper search a new player may develop who can fill the vacancy.

King, the freshman tackle on the Central eleven, is expected to come to the front in the Tech-Central game to-day. In recent practice, he has done some truly wonderful field kicking for a high school boy, and it remains to be seen whether he can duplicate these performances with the Blacksmith line battering at the Blue and White front to block him. Before the Episcopal game with Central, he was tried by the coach in a few attempts. A stiff wind was blowing, but the youngster made good with four goals out of five chances, two of them against the wind.

Although there is not much necessity for Tech's making any attempt at opening up the game to-day, it is pretty certain that if the Blacksmiths do enroll any forward passes and trick plays this season, some will come against Central. The latter is sure to try the new game, as it is only hope in the weakened condition, and the game will prove interesting if Tech responds. It will be a great sight to see Farmer, the speedy little quarter, and Sinclair, Tech's end, negotiate forward passes, or to see the Blacksmiths' line covering on an outside kick.

BIDDING FOR MATCH

Sid Hester Offers $75,000 for Jeffries-Johnson Fight.

COFFROTH REACHES NEW YORK

Two San Francisco Clubs Not After
Heavy-weight Championship Battle—
Johnson-Ketchell Fight Picture
Reaches New York and Shows
That Negro Had All Best of It.

New York, Oct. 25.—Sid Hester, a San Francisco fight promoter, has made a bid for the proposed Jeffries-Johnson battle that will receive serious attention. Hester, who runs the Mission Athletic Club in the East, telegraphed Jeff to-day that he would hang up a guarantee purse of $75,000, or the men could take 50 per cent of the gross receipts, also 50 per cent of the moving picture privilege, for a bout of from twenty to 10 rounds.

Hester also stated that the pugilists could select the date, and that he would post $25,000 for the fight. The Mission Athletic Club is one of the most substantial in the country, and anything Hester says he will do can be relied on. But these offers cut no figure now. It is simply curiosity not getting Johnson to sign articles, then we can consider the bids. Coffroth has not said yet what he is willing to offer, and there will be others.

Johnson and his manager, George Little, arrived in Chicago yesterday. They said they would arrive in this city on Thursday and would get down to business with Jeffries at once. Johnson expressed a willingness to leave Jeffries the terms of the fight, but he also said that the fight would have to be decided in America or England, with Australia barred.

Coffroth Meets a Bid.
James Coffroth, who will make a bid for the Jeffries-Johnson fight, for his club at Colma, near San Francisco, says:

"I am going to make a bid for the fight, but I cannot say just how much it will be. That will be determined after I know what other promoters are willing to offer. But you can say that Colma will be in line with a guaranteed purse or an offer of a percentage of the gate receipts. California is the only state in the Union in which the gate receipts are not pulled off without interference, and at the same time yield some profit. Nevada allows finish fights, but a big purse is out of the question, for the legitimate gate receipts are impossible."

"I am pretty sure that Jeff and Johnson both fear Coffroth. While I don't know how much I think the fight will draw at Colma, Jeff has an idea of his own, and I know Johnson thinks $150,000 is not impossible. If they want to fight for a percentage, well and good. They can get the money, I don't believe they want to run the risk of a fizzle in Nevada or some other place when they are dead sure of a fight at my club, and that is why I've come here to clinch the match."

"Johnson has won his spurs in California, whipping Kaufman and Ketchell. He is a formidable pugilist, no mistake, and I think he will make it interesting for Jeff. Mind you, I'm not saying who is the better man, but I'll not deny that Johnson has a chance. He made a monkey of Kaufman and was entirely too big and clever for Ketchell. I never thought Ketchell had a look-in from the time the match was first made, and Ketchell never had an idea of backing out. Ketchell is a courageous young fellow, who is not out of the running by any means. He is growing rapidly and in a few years he will be a man to beat. But just now, the public is anxious to see Jeff and Johnson settle their differences, and I am going to do my share to bring the fight to the coast."

Johnson Expected Soon.
When Johnson arrives here he will meet Jeffries and Coffroth in a joint conference, and if all hands are sincere the fight will be arranged without a hitch. There seems to be no further doubt that both pugilists want to fight, so that the signing of articles and the posting of forfeit money will be just a matter of time. It is reasonably certain, however, that the fight will not take place before April or May, as that is Jeffries' decision in the matter. If the match is made for that time, therefore, it will not be surprising if both men sign contracts to appear before the footlights for at least two months more. Neither has been accused of steering clear of sure money.

The moving pictures of the Johnson-Ketchell fight were shown at Hammerstein's Victoria Theater to-day for the first time in public. They were closely scanned by fight fans who were anxious to see the negro champion in action. As the Burns-Johnson pictures prove, the negro was entirely too big and powerful for Ketchell.

The films showed that Ketchell, at least four inches shorter and probably forty pounds lighter, was not a match for Johnson at any stage of the fight. It was also indicated that Johnson simply toyed with the Michigan man during the early rounds, and that from start to finish he speedily outclassed Ketchell, a knock-down in the twelfth round. Johnson's final attack, as he got up in the round, came like a flash of lightning, according to the pictures. He shot out his powerful right fist, and down went Ketchell in a heap.

The blow was delivered cleanly and with so much power that the crowd in the theater was quickly convinced that the only man who has a chance with the negro is Jeffries.

Mohawks, 20; Hospital Corps, 0.
The Mohawks defeated the strong Hospital Corps in a well played game at Seventeenth and D streets southeast, 20 to 0.

The features of the game were the playing of Murray, Mackintosh, and Lincroft on the M. A. C. and for the Navy, Clark and Boyd placed well with four goals out of five chances, two of them against the wind.

FIRST PREPS WIN OUT.

Red-hot Gridiron Battle Between Georgetown Youngsters.

Georgetown Prep field was the scene of a fierce gridiron battle yesterday afternoon between the teams representing the first and second preparatory classes, the former winning by the score of 18 to 0. The winners displayed a better knowledge of the game than their opponents and coupled with their weight were enabled to keep their adversaries away from the danger zone at all stages of the contest.

Next Sunday morning the teams of third and fourth preparatory will clash in the second game of the series for the class championship.
